Gavin was a handsome billionaire bachelor. He needed some time away to relax, when he decided to take a vacation with four of his closest friends.

Becky had just ended a seventeen year relationship with a man who refused to commit. She packed up and moved for a fresh start in a new town and scheduled a wonderful seven day cruise to kick off her new life.

When Gavin saw Becky on the ship, he was immediately intrigued. They found that they were both there to relax and renew, before jumping back into everyday life.

They agreed to a full week of fun in the sun, with no strings attached. The deal was no detailed conversation, just steamy romance, fun, and relaxation for the length of the cruise. When the trip was over, they would both walk away knowing nothing personal about the other.

Would it be as easy as they thought to let each other go?

When something happened to force their paths to cross again, would they be able to handle it?

Would they be able to walk away from their feelings a second time, or would the pull that they felt for each other be too strong to fight?

Sea of Love is a complete, stand-alone novel.

Editorial Review

Review

"Ms. Cummins writing is brilliant. I was pleasantly surprised while reading this story. It is told in Alternating POV's between Becky and Gavin. I really enjoyed the story and was instantly engrossed in this book. I was captured from the very beginning and was not released until the end. This is a book I will be recommending to all my friends and anyone else looking for an excellent book to read. I would give this book 10 stars if they went that high." - Summer's Book Blog

"Be ware that there are some hot steamy scenes and you will be blushing!!!! I recommend you this book!!!!" - Books and Beyond Fifty Shades
