Highmage (Highmage's Plight Series Book 4) By D.H. Aire

Mages, and their elflord kin, gather in the Seven Tiered Imperial Capital for the Conclave at the Mage Guild Hall. The Empire is home to elves, dwarves, ogres, and lowly humans. George, an archeologist from Earth's future with only his computer staff to aid him, has learned his only way home is to become Highmage. He is now one of only two candidates for the position. The other is backed by elvin traditionalists and is the unknowing puppet of the Demonlord, whose schemes are about to bring about civil war.

Fate hinges on George's unlikely allies: Gallen, the leader of a pack of urchins, who is not what he appears; George's apprentices - the elfblooded lad, Aaprin, who cannot do magic; the mischievous "twin" boys Revit and Terus; his swordswomen bodyguards; his shape-changing foster-daughter, who turns into quite the beast; an ogress who remembers navigating a starship, and, for some reason, his horse, Babylon.

George has no wish to be responsible for saving this world where, in the distant past, magic twisted the laws of science, but destiny seems to have other plans. He will do anything for the chance to return through the Highmage's Gateway back to Earth, the question is will he die before ever having the chance.

Welcome to the Fourth Book in the Highmage's Plight Series.

Editorial Review

About the Author

D.H. Aire has walked the ramparts of the Old City of Jerusalem and through an escape tunnel of a Crusader fortress that Richard the Lionheart once called home. He's toured archeological sites that were hundreds, if not thousands of years old... experiences that have found expression in his writing of his Highmage's Plight Series. D.H. Aire's short stories and a serialized version of Highmage's Plight (Book 1), Human Mage (Book 3), and excerpts of Merchants and Mages (Book 2), Highmage (Book 4) have been featured in the ezine Separate Worlds. A collection of his short stories appear in the anthology, Flights of Fantasy, Vol. 1, also featuring the stories of Barry Nove. Aire's story Crossroads of Sin appears in the anthology, RealLies. He's sample chapters of his forthcoming Young Adult novel, Dare 2 Believe, available on Wattpad.com, a free site intended for young adult readers.
