Spanish John Wesley By Miller Basil

SPANISH EDITION. This is an inspired history of a small fragile man who was a giant in the faith, and in commitment to Jesus Christ. God needed a man like John Wesley for a special time, at a specific place, and for a special purpose. Patiently he worked with his chosen instrument, to wake up, convince, and to redeem a nation. God breathed in his weakness and in his abilities, giving him a hunger and thirst for sanctity, which would not be denied. In his own pulpit, the pastoral ministry and education filled the banks of the church and were spilled out to other congregations, possibly unifying the church in strong body. His testimony of salvation and sanctification is still reflected through his hymns, books and biographies.
