One man has ignited the hearts of hundreds of thousands through his best-selling books. The other has touched the hearts of hundreds of thousands by washing the feet of men and women around the world. Now God chasers Tommy Tenney and Dave Cape have teamed up to call the Church to embark on an exciting journey that will change the way we live. Dismantling the long-held misconception of servanthood as drudgery, the authors proclaim that a servant's heart is not only the key to greatness, it is the key to experiencing true joy. On one trip across South Africa, Cape traveled a few thousand miles, carrying a cross and bowl weighing 45 pounds--and by the simple but hallowed act of washing and toweling their feet, he pointed thousands of men and women to Christ.
