Il Principio Di Perfezione Nel Pensiero Dantesco (Troubador Italian Studies) (Italian Edition) By Adriana Diomedi

The concept of 'knowledge' is consistent throughout Dante's work. This analytical work by Adriana Diomedi, is the first that examines 'knowledge' in relation to the relevance of human perfection within Dante's work. This is a study of Dante's perception of the need for mental and spiritual perfection in humankind. It is based on the assumption that knowledge is the key necessary to perfect one's own nature. Adriana Diomedi demonstrates that Dante's concern with the need for mental and spiritual perfection is present throughout his work - even when this focus is not obviously identifiable.
