Editorial Review

Review

"This book aims to set the record straight on leadership development. A high ideal to aim for but actually John Adair pulls it off...His chapter on 'Leaders or member?' is fascinating...Overall, a thought-provoking book with some interesting side stories that make it very readable." IET Engineering Management "Adair is rightly regarded as one of the founding fathers of modern leadership." Businessballs.com "Can contribute to an organization's strategy for development of its people and future growth of the business." Personnel Today "In Adair's view, no organization should give a leadership role to someone who has no relevant training." Shanghai Daily "John Adair is internationally acknowledged as an authority on leadership."
