New; see scans and description. Washington, DC: National Geographic Society, 2016. The April, 2016 issue of the National Geographic magazine, that being Volume 229, Number 4. The Photo Ark Project issue, that project being the brainchild of photographer Joel Sartore and National Geographic. This issue was produced with ten different cover variant, each with a different animal; this example bears Coquerel's Sifaka (see scan). Quarto, photo-illustrated perfect-bound wraps, 140 pp. New, bright, pristine and squeaky clean, removed from NGS shipping bag, scanned and described, then archived in sealed storage. Original shipping bag and promotional materials can be included on request. The profusion of laid-in and tipped-in subscription offers, etc.- all present, of course. See all scans. Feature articles - in addition to that Photo Ark project - include: 93 Days of Spring (photoshoot - see sample scan); Death: Event or Progression?; Rantepao, Sulawesi (where villagers keep their departed loved ones living with them through regular life); Out of Eden Walk ('Ghost Lands' of Armenia & Turkey); Urban Parks. See scan of contents page for more detail. There are also, of course, all the seemingly countless - and always deeply engaging - shorter features, departments, graphics, even absorbing ads. You know the NG. Brand New, collectible condition. Ships in a new, sturdy, protective box - not a bag. LPR21
