Crossed By Lacey Silks

She is looking for the one. He never thought the one existed. But the one thing that connects them can also tear them apart. Healing from a loss, Grace Brooks wants nothing more than to move on and has given every man she dated a chance—only to find they're not worth her time. Tying up loose ends of a case, Hunter Reeve stumbles upon a woman who may be the key to putting away a criminal family behind bars. As danger lurks, weaseling itself into Grace's life, Hunter is forced to make a choice between his work and Grace. And the wrong choice could have consequences neither one is ready for.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Author of Erotic Romance, Lacey Silks writes her stories from life experiences, dreams and fantasies. She likes a pinkish shade on a woman's cheeks, men with large feet and sexy lingerie, especially when it's torn off the body. Her favorite piece of clothing is a birthday suit. When she's not thinking about writing steamy stories, which is a rare occasion, Lacey enjoys camping and skiing with her family (not at the same time of course). She's a happily married wife blessed with two kids who adore going to the library. She's an early bird by nature, but loves the nightly adventures with her hubby which provide good content for her books.
