Editorial Review

Review

"A very clear, sustained, impartial guide." Choice

"A good starting point for students who want to have a readable overview of critical theories." English Literature in Transition

"Distinguished chiefly by its clarity and impartiality, this is a useful guide to the main schools of contemporary critical thought." Journal of Modern Literature

"An extremely helpful volume." South Atlantic Review

"The ideal crash course. Remarkable for its clarity." Times Literary Supplement

From the Publisher

This 4th edition aims to retain the valuable features of the original book; brevity, even coverage of the main literary theories and useful further readings and bibliographies. At the same time the new edition adds new material on 'contemporary' literary theories, such as: cultural materialism, post-colonial theory, feminist theory, Black British, African-American, Asian, Caribbean theory, and Gay and Lesbian theory.

From the Back Cover

The liveliest and most readable and reliable guide to contemporary literary theory, Raman Selden's classic text is now available in an updated Third Edition, substantially revised to bring you into the vanguard of current theory.
