Editorial Review

Review

"I love this Content Area Reading/Writing text, especially because it's the only one with an entire chapter on motivation! Also I appreciate the author's attention to the reading process, the user-friendliness of the book in general (as with step-by-step directions), and the research base." -Carol J. Delaney, Ph.D., of Texas State University

From the Back Cover

This theory-based, strategy-driven approach to teaching content area and secondary reading keeps an eye on the cultural issues affecting secondary students while emphasizing reflective practice to promote the most effective teaching. Chapters on assessment, motivation, struggling readers, aligning standards with strategies and assessment, and a constant focus on diversity set this text apart. Frequent opportunities for readers to apply the concepts they are learning help to make this a truly informative text.

SPECIAL FEATURES INCLUDE:

- Step-by-Step features, which precisely explain a strategy's implementation.
- Plenty of simple and effective strategies for assessing and addressing students' reading capabilities.
- A strong focus on standards that shows beginning teachers how to integrate literacy goals with content standards.
- An abundance of student work samples to fully illustrate chapter concepts, strategies, and effective teaching.
