A Detailed Summary & Analysis of Naked Greed By Stuart Woods

Naked Greed by Stuart Woods is a book about the infamous action hero named Stone Barrington. He is not an action hero per se, but he sure lives the life of one. Stone Barrington is an ex-police officer turned lawyer experiencing almost more action than James Bond himself. The story is very clearly laid out with interesting plot points that keep you intrigued throughout the book. The story starts off with him talking to one of his friends after a crazy night out. Basically, the night gets crazy when he gets jumped by two ex-police officers; but we'll talk about that later. The story itself will take you on twist-and-turns through an exhilarating rollercoaster of emotions because there is always something new to expect.

The 'thugs', both cops and gangsters, which he encounters in this book will show what can happen when someone decides to encroach into their territory. Their business dealings are very serious when going through a cat-and-mouse game. Stone Barrington is always put into tricky situations that are very tough to get out, but he ends up doing it victoriously. Nothing can hurt him. He uses his intelligence, superb skills, connections, and of course his money to get himself out of these sticky situations with no problems. Most importantly, he has the loyalty of his friends by his side.

The author, Stuart Woods was born in Manchester, Georgia on January 9, 1938. He graduated from the University of Georgia with flying colors and served in the United States Air Force as a pilot. He regularly flies personal planes as a hobby and writes world-famous novels in his spare time. His novels, 'Under The Lake' and 'White Cargo' are set to become featured films. So, his books are becoming bigger and bigger each time they're released potentially ending up on the big screen. This is a clear sign that the author has something really special to offer to the world. People want to read his books no matter what. Even critics say that his books are becoming boring will still read them just for fun of it because of addiction.

Stuart Woods lived in places such as New York, Maine, and London while visiting many world events. He has over 50 novels under his belt. This author is a master with the pen and a great storyteller at that who keeps the plot captivating. Stuart Woods is known for releasing novels at least four times a year, so this brings anticipation to a new fanbase of his future work. He does a great job of using his words to hook the customers.
