John Birmingham has lived with eighty-nine people and kept notes on all of them. This is their story.

These hilarious tales of urban terror reveal the dark truth hidden behind three seemingly innocent words?a phrase that you have seen a hundred times before but will never view in the same light again?

WANTED TO SHARE

John Birmingham's rendering of a life in share houses will leave you laughing, cringing and reminiscing about your own brushes with the mad, bad residents of flat mate hell.

'This is the grunge version of Melrose – the characters move speedily from one bed to another in Birmingham's share-house hell ... Not recommended for landlords' – Kathy Bil, Editor, Rolling Stone

'You'll read it with horrified amusement and, if you've ever shared a flat, the occasional wince of recollection' – Terry Pratchett, author of the Discworld series
