Reflections of a Corporate Coach (1-50) (Corporate Coaching Masterclass)

By Richard Winfield

“A practical demonstration of storytelling in corporate life ...”

This enlightening collection of anecdotes and observations from Richard Winfield’s 30-year career provides an insight into personal development and positive thinking, and is a practical demonstration of the power of storytelling in corporate life.

His desire to meet influential people from all over the world is demonstrated with each entry that unfolds, leaving the reader with an array of tales of inspiration and wisdom.

Reflections of a Corporate Coach (1-50) is the first collection of editorials inspired by the many people Richard Winfield has met, the events he has lived through and ideas that he has encountered since the launch of the CorporateCoach newsletter in 2001. It is a diary of thinking that has allowed him to express his refreshingly simple approach to life and share his wisdom with a wide audience.

Richard is the founder and principal consultant of Brefi Group. He is the creator of Invisible Coaching® - the art of natural coaching – for ‘ordinary’ people and designer of the ASEC Coach Certification Program for professional coaches.
