"An inspiring and informative look into the minds and behind the scenes of this highly skilled group of artist as they break down what it takes to bring their amazing visions to life. It is the kind of book you can go through again and again, learning something new each time." (Brom, Artist)

"Sketching from the Imagination is a charming insight into the sketchbooks of a fascinating group of Artists. This collection provides plenty of inspiration for anyone with a passion for art, the book is filled with drawings ranging from quirky doodles to beautifully rendered sketches. It's a feast for the eyes." (Charlie Bowater, Illustrator & Atomhawk Concept Artist)

"It's an inspiring book for those who like art, and of course sketchbooks, and probably will get you inspired to start sketching. Very inspirational, no doubt. Most highly recommended." (Parka Blogs)

"What a fantastic book: every page is alive with energy and imagination. I really felt as though the featured artists had granted me special permission to peer inside their heads at the creative process. It's exhilarating to see ideas in such a raw form. Very personal, extremely beautiful and completely inspiring." (Matt Dixon, Freelance Illustrator)
