- Use a narrative, storytelling approach to intercultural communication to make understanding key concepts easier and more interesting for students
- Begin each chapter with a narrative, usually written by one of the authors from a personal experience, to provide an engaging introduction to the chapter topic
- Conclude each chapter with readings to enhance the students' understanding of the material covered in the chapter
- Follow each reading with discussion questions and activities that guide the students to apply the intercultural experiences ("stories") of others in order to make sense of their own personal stories

Praise for Intercultural Communication

This is an exceptional book... [providing] an excellent presentation of both organizational communication theories and concepts, and pragmatic applications of these perspectives.... Please let me know when this book will be in print so that I may adopt it!

The best feature of the book is the authors' writing style. When they are explaining concepts... there is 100% clarity.
