IN THEIR OWN WORDS

".....in this thing of ours, your love for your mother and father is one thing, your love for The Family is a different kind of love." Raymond Patriarca from an FBI bugs placed in Patriarca's office from 1962 to 1965. The bug helped to indicate legislators and judges in both Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

"(He) doesn't have enough the brains or the power to lead the family. He couldn't lead a Brownie troop." Rhode Island State Police investigator Junior Patriarca taking over the family.

"If that job had gone to Angiulo, we would have bodies all over the place." Providence Police Detective on top lieutenant Ilario "Larry" Zannino throwing his support behind the late mob boss's son, Raymond J. "Junior" Patriarca over Angiulo in 1984 after Raymond Patriarca died.

"The toughest guy you ever saw." Massachusetts State cop on Raymond Patriarca

"No one in the New England mob ever starved, whether they were made guys or working for the organization. Patriarca wasn't like Genovese or old Joe Profaci. He made sure his men got paid well" Vincent Teresa

"....in this thing of ours, your love for your mother and father is one thing, your love for The Family is a different kind of love." Raymond Patriarca overheard on a government tape talking to Nicholas Bianco

"You two don't have the brains of your retarded sister." Raymond Patriarca to John and Robert Kennedy during the McClellan committee hearings

'We're going after that pig on the hill,' Bobby Kennedy referring to Raymond Patriarca's Federal Hill stronghold in Providence.

"I met him as a soldier when I met him," Joe Valachi on Raymond Patriarca. They met in 1938.

"How do you think I feel? I got three houses, five businesses, five kids, two girlfriends and a wife, and now I'm right there. I'm almost at the top, where I'm set for life." Bobo Marrapese

"Bang, bang, bang, bang. There were five or six shots and Callei fell to the floor shaking," I picked up the stool. I was going to hit him [Callei] with it. Bobo said, 'No, I'll have enough of a mess to clean up around here.'" William "Billy" Ferle

"Don't even fuck'n bother"

"Thanks, Bobo,"

"It's Frank"

Conversation between Bobo Marrapese and the state police who wanted answers about past mob murders.

"I learned my lesson. Shame on me if I didn't know after what happened to me in the last 35 years with my best friend (Flemmi). Shame on me if it happens again." Salemme to U. S. District Court Judge Mark L. Wolf after finding out that his two co-defendants in the case, Flemmi and Bulger, were long-time FBI informants and had used him.
