Although spirituality and religion are very widespread and are important pursuits in life, many people wonder, "Am I praying correctly? Am I doing this right?" These kinds of questions imply a lack of spiritual experience, a reaching out into the blackness of our inner mind, and finding nothing there, no answers from the Divine, and no indication that our prayer matters or works. If this continues, we may give up, turn spiritually cold, or worse, become a skeptic, resentful towards religion or even God. Sadly, the problem is not with God or religion, it is with ourselves.
