Editorial Review

Review

"The Alabaster Girl is highly poetic, sharp, and engaging. It's easy to fall into the rabbit hole of the narrator's musings, part poem and part half-remembered dreams. The book is an ode to a deep appreciation of women and to the dance of the masculine and feminine as old as time." - San Francisco Book Review

"... a richly compelling, beautifully poetic journey into the heart of relationships... an astonishingly insightful guide to the paradoxes of love. This opus is best relished in small sips, allowing time for its many a-ha moments to weave themselves into your own tapestry of self-discovery. Highly recommended!" - Steve Pavlina
