Editorial Review

About the Author

Simon Gray is an experienced recruiter beginning his career in the industry in 1999. Ten years later he jointly founded Cherry Professional Limited, a recruitment business dedicated to providing the best career advice to jobseekers. With limited education available on jobseeker psychology and how best to move in the job market, Simon left recruitment in 2013 to form Career Codex Limited, an education and training company with the sole purpose of empowering jobseekers. Simon is also a Chartered Accountant having qualified with KPMG and in his leisure time is an accomplished Martial Artist who spent two years living and training in Tokyo, Japan. These life experiences combined with his extensive experience of frontline recruitment contribute to his innovative and unique approach to jobseeker success. He is also an experienced commentator and in August 2013 appeared on BBC National News at Ten discussing the Bank of England's unemployment target and was also quoted in the Financial Times and Wall Street Journal. Super Secrets of the Successful Jobseeker has been used to develop two Ofqual qualifications in career planning and employability skills and was written to give the jobseeker that all important edge. Combining mental discipline, the psychology of people and expert knowledge of the job market it's the book any serious jobseeker must read!
