As a child, London was never alone in her room. Something — or someone — was always hiding under her bed, but she never saw who. She only heard a man's voice, and he became her best friend.

Her mother falls ill and London rushes home. She doesn't know what to expect when she moves back into her old room, but one thing's for sure. The monster under the bed is still there, and he hasn't forgotten her.

Enchanted Ever After is a series for those who enjoy reading short stories about love, passion and supernatural beings like elves, angels, and vampires. Each book can be read as a stand-alone.
