Editorial Review

About the Author

Christie Ruffino is the President and Founder of the Dynamic Professional Women's Network, Inc., the Dynamic Women's Conference, DPWN Publishing and the DPWN Angel Foundation. Her networking experience and leadership training has provided her the expertise to create a thriving platform for women to build their businesses in a relationship based, industry exclusive, professional networking organization designed exclusively for them to generate strong referrals for each other. The great thing about all of this, and what Christie gets to see on a daily basis, is that once women stop trying to build their businesses alone and start collaborating with other smart and dedicated women, their lives will become transformed in so many areas besides in just business. Christie is now dedicated to helping others cash in on their unique strengths by defining and sharing their Personal Power Stories and building and leveraging their own networking tribe.
