The Mormon Delusion. Volume 5. Doctrine and Covenants - Deception and Concoctions By Jim Whitefield

Volume five in The Mormon Delusion series investigates the early Mormon 'Lectures of Faith', comparing the doctrines of the time with the teachings of today - which are entirely different. It then analyses each 'Section' of the Doctrine and Covenants while searching for Joseph Smith 'prophecies' which are evaluated in terms of any evidence of fulfilment. It will come as no surprise to learn that none have any prophetic value or merit whatsoever. However, there is plenty of evidence of Smith's fraud scattered throughout the D&C which is analysed at each stage.

From the Author

The Mormon Delusion series represents six years of full time research and writing. Each volume is fully Harvard System referenced. There is no speculation or supposition - just evidence of the truth which the Mormon Church hides from rank and file Mormons and investigators alike.

All books have also been published in eBook format, exclusively available from Lulu. Links to the author's personal book store appear on themormondelusion.com web site or go directly to: lulu.com/spotlight/themormondelusion for more information.

From the Inside Flap

The following text is included for information and is from the hard cover jacket. It does not appear in the paperback version.

Front flap:

Jim Whitefield joined the Mormon Church as a teenager in 1960, remaining faithful for forty-three years. He served a mission, married in the temple, raised a large family and served in Ward, Stake and Regional callings. His beloved wife Jan died as a result of breast cancer, just after 9/11 in 2001. Whitefield's underlying atheistic tendencies haunted him and in 2003, he finally succumbed to the belief there is no God. He resigned Church membership and over the next three years, remarried and tried to get on with life. He never questioned why the Mormon Church was not true. It never even occurred to him to look.

Retiring in 2006, among his books, Whitefield found an old Mormon booklet which led him to some research out of idle curiosity. Following his devastating discovery of polyandry, Whitefield went on to uncover the awful truth that every other aspect of Mormonism had equally been completely falsified. Modern Mormonism has been 'created' out of a history and scripture filled with lies, suppression, omission and interpolation. Mormons are fed a cocktail of fiction which they believe implicitly God has confirmed to them is true. Unless Mormons have the courage to look outside their Church, they will never discover the continued conspiracy to deceive them.

Back flap:

Members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (LDS or Mormons) are taught a very limited and completely falsified set of beliefs and historical accounts regarding their Church. They are also taught never to look beyond authorised Church published material for evidence of the truth concerning the Church. This method of control and deception keeps the faithful from the real truth. Members believe material written by so-called enemies of the Church contains lies and falsifications designed to destroy their testimony. Such material should be avoided or Satan may deceive them and lead them astray. Fear is used as a prime motivator along with guilt which is also skilfully instilled in members. Mormons accept this premise as true and have no idea that in reality; entirely the opposite is the case. The lies all stem from within the Church and the 'enemies of the Church' simply reveal those lies and provide evidence of the truth behind the hoax.

The Mormon Delusion was originally to be a trilogy, exposing the truth behind the Mormon Church. Volume four came about in response to the fact that Mormon missionaries today are trained to teach investigators the same lies that are still perpetuated within the Church. Evidence derived from Church history, Smith's own writings and so-called scripture, conflicts dramatically with what the Church now portrays as true to unsuspecting investigators.

Volume five in The Mormon Delusion series investigates the early Mormon 'Lectures of Faith', comparing the doctrines of the time with the teachings of today - which are entirely different. It then analyses each 'Section' of the Doctrine and Covenants while searching for Joseph Smith 'prophecies', each of which is then evaluated in terms of any evidence of fulfilment. It will come as no surprise to learn that none have any prophetic value or merit whatsoever. However, there is plenty of evidence of Joseph Smith's fraud scattered throughout the D&C which is analysed and summarised in "The Final Analysis" at the end of the book.

Bobbie Freeman:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
