Review

"Do a thing long enough - make it into a routine - second guess what's going to happen and you'll soon get tired of it. Is that possible with worship? Yes, it is. We can all talk up the reasons why we should gather for worship in homes and church buildings, special events and mega events. But is this routine? Routinely boring? Even if it is not so for you, almost certainly it is if you are part of the young emerging generation or those who love Christ, but find church and its music difficult.

I was interviewed by the BBC regarding faith and doubt and my hostile atheist opponent accused me of 'brainwashing'. I responded that is what we do, every time we gather for worship, put ourselves under scripture and receive ministry. 'We are all brainwashed' I quipped, 'the only difference between me and you, is that what I am washing my brains in, is very much cleaner than what you are washing yours in!' Tommy Tenney has done a masterly job in ensuring that worship is full of life, content, joy and adoration. It is much needed and has arrived at the right time." -- Gerald Coates; Speaker, Author, Broadcaster

"Tommy Tenney has done it again! In the same thought-provoking style of The God Chasers, Tommy challenges all of us to restore the passion for a worship of God. God's Favorite House is destined to be on the short list of Christian classics in the years ahead." -- C. Peter Wagner; Chancellor, Wagner Leadership Institute - Colorado Springs, Colorado

From the Back Cover

Does God have a favorite house?

If God were ever to get "homesick" for any of the houses of worship on earth, where would that be? What events at that location would provoke the eternal mind of God to label that house as His favorite, to forever memorialize it in His own memory?

Man seeks God encounters at what he calls "God's house," but God seeks man encounters at what He calls "man's house." Remember the names? "Moses' Tabernacle," "David's Tabernacle," "Solomon's Temple"? God has searched the earth for intimate worship since the garden of Eden.

What would happen if the ancient patterns and old blueprints were rediscovered? What if the anointed practices were refreshed and restored? If we could "rebuild" that house, would He "revisit"?

With the landscape littered with multi-million dollar steeples piercing God's atmosphere and stained windows coloring His sunshine, it would seem that the choice of His favorite house would be elaborate. Prepare to be surprised as you discover God's Favorite House.

"If you build it, He will come"-God's Favorite House.
