She is ready for love, and he is ready to love again!

Lauren has been hiding her feelings for Mike ever since her dad invited him to live with them. Mike is just the kind of man she wants - mature, handsome, strong...

Mike has barely been able to keep his eyes averted from Lauren's ripe curves, but honor holds him back. Still, something about her makes him think that life could be so much better. What could the future hold with a woman like that?

Their secret fantasies of a fairy tale home life come to a head when Lauren's friend Nikki throws herself at Mike. All of a sudden Lauren realizes - she has to act. She has to tell him, and offer him the best her womanly body possesses before it's too late. But will he be willing to really commit? Will he be willing to give her what she really wants - make her a woman and give her a baby?

This is a short story romance. No cliffhanger.
