The Bead Method By Mark Gungor, Carolyn Evans

At its most basic level, marriage is, first and foremost, a sexual contract.

When a couple says “I do”, it means I do you, you do me, and we won’t DO anyone else!

Yes, there is more to marriage than sex (companionship, romance, friendship). True, you don’t need a marriage license to LOVE someone, but you should have one in order to have fulfilling sex.

Early in a relationship, no one thinks that sex, something that was supposed to be wonderful, energizing, and enjoyable to bind two people together for life, could cause such strife and disagreement.

The sad part is that sex is a big problem for many married couples today.

We live in a spontaneous society where people wait for sexual magic to strike at precisely the perfect moment.

Do you want to know the secret to a satisfying-sex and fulfilled marriage?

Get this book and find the fun, easy ways to become intentional about your sex life and enjoy that loving, generous marriage you’ve always wanted!
