Each profile features icons that give an at-a-glance picture of enrollments, selectivity, and costs. In addition, the book includes The Princeton Review's "Admission Wizard," a short questionnaire that streamlines one's college search by helping to define the right type of school for the reader.

Besides the useful statistics and deadline information, the Complete Book of Colleges helps the reader find schools that offer degrees and majors that he/she is looking for, and lets the reader know what tests he/she will need to take to gain admission.
