Perdido en el Amazonas (Spanish Edition) By Germán Castro Caycedo

Un joven aventurero, un ex infante de marina que buscaba fortuna en el sur del país, se adentró en la selva acompañado por uno de sus ayudantes. Su nombre era Julián Gil Torres. Había recorrido los ríos de la Amazonia canjeando toda clase de mercaderías, se había hecho un nombre en el comercio de pieles y soñaba con fundar un nuevo centro de abastecimiento en medio de la jungla. Después de desaparecer con su acompañante, una patrulla de rescate liderada por su hermano intentó dar con el paradero de los dos hombres. Las únicas pistas de su destino serían halladas en medio de una tribu desconocida.
