My Someday is book 3 and the final installment of the Just One of the Guys series. Old Enough to Love and Finally...One Summer are the first two books in the series.

Four and half years ago, after capturing her heart and her virginity, Zach Owens walked away from Emma Hendrick leaving her in the small town he hated and with a guy he hated even more.

Emma has tried hard to survive her shattered heart, the bitter betrayal of Zach leaving, and she finally turned to the one person who had always been there for her, Austin Falsone. But one little text to her brother from Zach reading “how is she” was all it took. Now, she wondered about their time apart. Was she the 'she' in that text? He was the one who had left her almost five years ago!

Then after coming home from college and a chance meeting...one look into Zach's mother's sad eyes sends Emma on a rollercoaster journey to find Zach. So, Emma leaves her safe little world and heads to California to find out what has kept Zach away from his parents...and truth be told, to see him for herself...to see the man who stole her heart so long ago.

Zach—a man who left her, breaking his own heart four years ago...what has the time apart brought him?

Austin—a man who has been there loving her unconditionally while Zach wasn't...

Will Emma find what she is looking for in California? Will she return Zach to his family? Will Austin prevent that from happening? Will Austin or Zach be her someday...her forever...
