"I can't pay." She took another step. It brought her level with his outstretched legs. One more tiny step brought her between them. "But I have a proposition."

LUCAS LEBRAY is the biggest, baddest wolf in town. A sexy shifter who likes to pretend there isn't much more to him than fun and games. He owns the local garage, which just happens to be directly across the street from the deli owned by the only woman he's ever wanted down to his bones. The problem is, she's miles out of his reach. Deserves better than dirty, oil-soaked hands and the wolf that goes with them.

SOFIA RIVERA is hard up. Hot and bothered and the only thing that is going to help, is a dose of Luc LeBray. She's seen the tricky wolf's hidden core of integrity, through the plate glass windows of her store. Some nights, she'll turn out the lights and watch him across the street, taking things apart and putting them back together. The way she wants him to do to her.

So she devises what should have been a simple plan. She takes a wrench to her car's engine and makes Lucas a scandalous offer. Trade services. When she whispers those words in his ear, Lucas's resolve to do the right thing snaps and Sofia finds herself the focus of a silver-eyed wolf who demands everything she has.

Wolf Down ~ 4.5 Stars

Bears and Lions are ok. But man, when he's a werewolf, I just melt and Lucas is totally melt-worthy. I really enjoyed the series, the writing was technically well done, but the characters just came to life and made me care about them. Looking forward to more from this author. -- Cindy Hagerthy (Amazon Review)
