Editorial Review

Review

"[The Love Game] helped me have a better understanding and appreciation of [my boyfriend]. There were little things I didn't even know we had in common like that we were both born three weeks late. It made me love him more, in a different and deeper way. It seems like a pretty good way to get to know someone on an intimate level that would normally take possibly years to do." -- Sarah Burh, TechCrunch

"A friend of mine just used this with me a couple of weeks ago. It changed my whole perspective of her. She's had a known interest in me for a while, but I kept her in the friend zone. After our little park date where we played a little game (that turns out to be these questions), something changed. Like I had no idea why or what, except for these questions. It created a different dynamic between us, and I've started thinking about a potential relationship with her... The feeling that the game left me with afterwards was pretty amazing. No doubt, it creates a space of intimacy incredibly effectively...and undeniably I might add. The Love Game will Miyagi your relationship/love life" -- Dilan Prema, CEO of Prema Group

"Love is a verb... and there's nothing more romantically intoxicating than truly being seen, and having another reveal their innermost, authentic self. The Love Game, when used honestly, will create a level of intimacy in just 36 questions usually achieved in more like 36 weeks. It just about guarantees that even the most reserved, shutdown person will fall in love... Use with EXTREME caution, or you just might find yourself surrounded by suitors!" -- Carol Allen, Vedic Astrologer and Relationship Coach

"If you are looking for a fun way to connect and deepen with your spouse or a date, try playing 'The Love Game.' This could be the next fun game for your Friday night couples dinner party, date night, or your next first date. Seriously, the questions are good and created from a 20 year research project [and] designed to create connection and build intimacy." -- Jayson Gaddis, Breakthrough Marriage Coach
