A Lot Like Love By Helen Lacey

Mark Dennison will do anything to save his daughters life...even if that means reconnecting with the one person he never wants to see again. The woman who killed his wife.

After her twin sister's death, Catherine McLeod gave up all hope of seeing her young niece ever again. But when Mark rocks up on her doorstep and announces she's the only one who can save Sophie, she's prepared to do whatever she can to help. Which doesn't include falling for the one man she can never have. A man who can never discover her secret promise.
