Editorial Review

Review

'I am bowled over by The Time Traveller's Guide to British Theatre... I've read many histories of theatre in my time, some very dry and academic and others rather more basic and banal for young readers or people still in the foothills of the Everest of theatre history. But never before have I chortled and marvelled my way through anything quite so informative and entertaining - and for the authors to have done both with such aplomb is quite an achievement... Had I not also read Antony Sher's outstanding - but completely different - Year of the Fat Knight a couple of months ago I would have had no hesitation in declaring that The Time Traveller's Guide to British Theatre is the best theatre book I've read in years. As it is, I'm just thankful I shan't have to choose between them.' Susan Elkin, The Stage;
