The Billionaire's New Toy By D.J. Heart

Brody is spending his first summer as a college student interning at a multinational consulting firm. He got the position through his father - who happens to be best friend with the owner and CEO, Keith Hunter. When Brody is falsely accused of using the company network to browse adult sites, Keith takes it personally and decides to punish Brody himself, keeping it off the record.

Keith is rough and brutal, spanking Brody first with his hand and then with his belt. When Brody protests his innocence, using the fact that he's gay as proof that he wouldn't be looking at straight sites, Keith makes him prove it...

(This story is 11,000 words long. All characters are eighteen or older.)

Working his way around the party, talking to team leaders and the occasional client, Keith circled closer and closer to Brody. He didn't notice it at first, the casual stalking occurring instinctively, but as he became aware of Brody noticing him - shooting him the occasional worried glance - he realized what he was doing.

That's not to say that he stopped.

Stalking Brody was fun. He had no intention of catching the boy - or at least no concrete plans for what to do once he did - so there was no harm in it.

When he saw Brody turn as though to leave he ended his conversation with the wife of his head of HR and intercepted the boy.

"Brody," he said as he stepped into the young man's path. Brody looked at him wearily, glancing around as though looking for someone to save him. Keith was a little insulted, but he smiled anyway.

"Hello, Mr. Hunter," Brody answered politely.

"Walk with me," Keith ordered, turning around and gesturing for Brody to step in next to him.

"I was actually just going to..." Brody started, but Keith interrupted him.

"You were going to take a walk with me, Brody. Now come." The last was said without the smile.
