That Kiss in the Rain: Love is the Weather of Life By Novoneel Chakraborty
That Kiss in The Rain: Love Is The Weather of Life is a novel that focuses on the life of Hasil, a man who seems to have everything going in his favour. Not only does Hasil marry the girl of his dreams, Palki, but he also succeeds in his business. However, things take a drastic turn for the worse, when Hasil meets with an accident that results in him losing his memory and his wife too. His wife dies but Hasil is unable to recollect the incident and often wonders about her absence.

When his friend Nitin visits him in hospital, things start to take shape. Soon, the readers are introduced to two women, named Pallavi and Swadha, both of whom have very diverse natures. Pallavi is a rich girl, who seems to have everything going in her favour. She has loved and lost once, after which she finds herself incapable of being in love again. Swadha, on the other hand, is a modest girl who has been rejected by her family, on the grounds of being a girl.

What happens when both these girls fall in love with Hasil? The story keeps you gripped, as the author slowly unravels the intricate romantic plot that involves these three characters.
