Editorial Review

Review

‘...excellent’

- The Wall Street Journal

From the Back Cover

The wild beauty of Montenegro's landscapes is no longer a secret. The country has leapt onto the world tourism stage and is praised for its azure Adriatic coastline and rugged mountain interior that offers good hiking in summer and scenic skiing in winter. Add to the mix the indomitable spirit of the locals, and their spread of hearty, organic food and you have a recipe for good travels.

Now in its third edition, Bradt's Montenegro is the most established guide to the country on the market. With it you can explore ancient ruins and hidden corners of medieval cities like Herceg Novi and Kotor, discover the best beaches and spy eagles and ibis in Biogradska National Park. It's a great read to boot!

- * Sample wild trout with a glass of the local vranac
- * Stay in a mountain monastery, or a family home
- * Go white-water rafting through the mighty Tara Canyon
- * New chapter on trips across the border
- * Use the Serbian language section to know your crkva's from your gospe's
