The Crusades: A Very Brief History By Mark Black

Want to learn more about history, but don't think you have the time? Think again.

The Crusades were a series of Holy Wars launched by the Christian states of Europe against the Islamic States of the Middle East. The Crusades started in 1095 when Pope Claremont preached the First Crusade at the Council of Claremont. The Pope's preaching led to thousands immediately affixing the cross to their garments and taking up arms; this book is the story of their journey.

The Very Brief History series is intended to give the reader a short, concise account of the most important events in world history. Each book provides the reader with the essential facts concerning a particular event or person; no distractions, just the essential facts, allowing the reader to master the subject in the shortest time possible.

With The Very Brief History series, anyone can become a history expert!
