One kiss under the mistletoe changed everything...

Rose Falcon's parents had good reason when they asked her to stay away from Leo Flanagan, a boy in her year at school. And for five years Rose managed to keep her distance. But in her sixth year she seems unable to escape the attraction flaring between them. Perhaps no one need ever know, they could date in secret and just wait for the inevitable break-up? It's a relationship clearly doomed to failure, they should go back to keeping away from each other, if they could just stop kissing!
