True Confessions of Sex: Collection One By Tony Damosto

Documenting sexual experiences beyond the boundaries of conventional coupledness, this collection of ten true confessions of group sex reveals the secrets of erotic adventures involving three, four and more.

In Pool Party, Riane reveals what happened when four female friends met four guys on a warm summer night which ended with a private pool party.

Best Friends is Alec's tale of his friendship with his best buddy and the twists and turns of competition and collaboration during daring dates.

In Building Sight, Dawn confesses to extending her sexual education with two workmen whilst on sabbatical leave from her academic post.

Super Service is a confession from the world of military men in which Martin reveals the effectiveness of good teamwork with willing partners.

In Housemates, Laura reveals how a house party not only changed her relationship with her housemates for ever but changed her attitude to diverse sexual relationships for the better.

Fair Exchange shines a light on the secret world of partner swapping among young couples when Jake enthusiastically embraces Lily's desires.

Barn Three discloses the liberating effects of living away from home for the first time as Miranda reveals how her fledgling interest in multiple partners developed into an adventure with Jerome and his two cousins.

In Two Timing, Max explains how he occupied his time when his girlfriend was away for the weekend and his surprising meeting with two women who not only worked together but also played together.

In The Hornbill, Helen reveals what happened when she visited an adult encounter club for the first time, in the company of her friend Lorna, and the astonishing turn of events at the end of the evening.

Love Match is Sandro's confession about his relationship with Hayley during a mixed doubles tennis tournament and their temptation to participate in unusual off-court activities organized by other players.
