Editorial Review

Review

The lone negative review for Awakening The Soul: The Trilogy was posted by a fundamentalist who found a one-word error (inserted by an editing assistant) which he used to attempt to discredit the entire 730-page book.

The one-word error, which was still correct in context, has been corrected, and this review should be ignored.

About the Author

Bill Missett, a retired California daily newspaper editor, lives in a small fishing/surfing village in Southern Mexico. Some 25 years ago, Bill experienced a life-saving incident of spontaneous mental telepathy while bodysurfing. That prompted more than two decades of study and investigation into metaphysics and psychic phenomena, which led to the spiritual experiences that created this book.

He is married to Patrice Perillie, a prominent human rights/political asylum attorney with offices in New York City and Oaxaca, Mexico. He is the father of two adult sons, Bill III and Jeffrey, who live in California.

His personal interests include archaeology, artifact hunting, raising trees from seed, preparing homegrown chili spices, bodysurfing, bird watching, music and reading.
