An Indulgence Novella

Cass thought spending a month at a beachside hideaway relaxing and collecting shells would be the perfect escape to finish her novel. When she meets the dark and brooding and much younger Jonah, who's staying next door, her book becomes the last thing on her mind.

Jonah would rather stay home alone than go on vacation with his brother and their friends, but does his best to tolerate the situation after being convinced to go. But when he sees the beauty next door, he can't avoid his attraction.

Together, they break all the rules, but will Cass be able to bring Jonah out of his shell forever, or will he leave her with only the crash of the surf to keep her company?

Editorial Review

Review

"I finished this book in one sitting. Well, it's a short novella after all but that was not the main reason! The story and the characters in Crash into Love had me so captivated that I totally lost track of my time! When I reached the end, I had this silly smile on my face even though I can't bear to part with the two main characters." -Michelle Chew Writes

"I knew I would like this book because Sofia wrote it. Loving it is a bonus I enjoyed immensely." -Heather Hand

"I have to say, this is one of the best novella's I have read in the Indulgence line. Right from the opening chapter it grabbed me. " -Nicola_1202

"This book is one you would read while curling up on the couch, on a rainy day. A feel good, slow paced, sweet romance. Jonah is toe-curling sexy and knows how to make a woman feel cherished." -Cheryl Sanders

"I was drawn in on the first page and read it nonstop until I finished at 3.30 in the middle of the night. Yes I am pretty sleepy today but so worth it." -Savannah
