The End By Sara Lucinda Bell

The End is an emotional roller coaster following the lives of three young adults as they fight to survive through the end of the world. Hank, the sole survivor of his Marines Logistics Group in China, is searching for his pregnant wife. Dallas, pregnant with her first child, is searching for her parents. . . or anyone who can help deliver her baby safely. Kyle suddenly finds himself a leader in this crazy new world, a role he has never had before. All three of them must fight to stay who they are, to find what they are looking for, and to survive.
