The Boy By Germaine Greer

Through a series of carefully constructed themes, ranging from the boy as passive love object to soldier boys, from the boy under the female gaze to "what is a boy?", Greer opens our eyes and invites us to appreciate boys in all their sensuality, flirtatiousness, spontaneity and vulnerability. Whether discussing sculptures of Cupid of Apollo, paintings by Caravaggio or Van Dyck, and photographs by Nan Goldin or Sally Mann; whether quoting Ovid, Flaubert, Milan Kundera or Eminem; whether describing martyred saints, the dancer Nijinsky or James Dean, Germaine Greer explores the iconic ideal of the beautiful boy, with the aid of more than 200 pictures ranging over the whole history of art.

Oh come on your examining sixth sense already told you so why you have to listening to one more sixth sense.

John Lyons:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Boy can make you feel more interested to read.
