Editorial Review

About the Author

Shy Love, also known as Sheelagh Blumberg, is a successful business woman and married mother of two. She holds a bachelor's degree and two master's degrees, and is an experienced accountant. She has had several successful and profitable businesses and entertainment ventures, including being nominated for awards during her time as a director, producer, and distributor. She has also owned lucrative nightclubs and talent agencies. She recently sold her talent agency. She has been hired in numerous aspects of business as a consultant. Shy Love has traveled all over the world and has met many people in her travels. Her experiences with people of all different cultures has given her extensive knowledge in reading people and knowing what drives them. One thing she noticed was that lonely men tended to take their advice about how to get women from other men. That is why she elected to write a dating book for men from a woman's perspective. After all, who better to tell men what women want than a woman? Shy Love's busy schedule still leaves her time to spend time with her husband and two kids. She currently lives with them in California.
